The following information describes North Star Community Credit Union’s policy of making funds deposited in a Share Account (also known as a "transaction account"). The Credit Union reserves the right to delay the availability of funds deposited into accounts that are not transactional accounts for periods longer than those described in this policy. This is what is called a Funds Availability Policy. Generally, transaction accounts are accounts, which would permit an unlimited number of payments by check or other order to third persons, and also an unlimited number of telephone and preauthorized transfers to third persons, or other accounts you may have with us.

Your Ability to Withdraw Funds. Our policy is to make funds available as follows:

Deposit Availability of Deposits. For determining the availability of your deposits, every day is a business day, except Saturdays, Sundays, and Federal holidays. If you make a deposit after 4:00 p.m. on any day you are not open, we will consider the deposit was made on the next business day we are open. Our hours of operation and closing times are available from the credit union and posted in the credit union lobby.

Please be aware, however, that all deposits are subject to verification and if you deposit a check, draft or other non-cash item, which is returned for any reason, you authorize us to charge your account for the amount of those funds and we may charge your account without providing prior notice.

Case-By-Case Delays. There may be delayed availability of funds from some checks that are deposited into your accounts. Your deposits may be made available immediately by the Credit Union, however, in some cases, we will not make all of the funds that you deposit by check available to you on the next business day after we receive the deposit. If your deposit is not made available on the next business day, the funds may not be available until the fifth business day after the date of your deposit. If we are not going to make all of the funding available on the next business day, we will notify you at the time you make your deposit. We will also let you know when the funds will be available. If your deposit is not made directly to one of our employees, or if we decide to take this action after you have left the premises, we will mail you the notice by the next business day after we receive your deposit. If you need the funds from a deposit right away, you should ask us when the funds will be available. During any delay, you may not withdraw the funds in cash and North Star Community Credit Union will not use the funds to pay checks that you have written. The length of delay is determined in business days from the day of your deposit, including every day except Saturdays, Sundays, and observed holidays. A deposit is considered received when it is accepted at one of our branch offices or when there is an appropriate endorsement. A deposit accepted while our data processing system is not online will be considered received when the transaction is posted in the North Star Community Credit Union records.

Longer Delays May Apply. In some cases, we will not make all of the funds that you deposit by check available to you on the first business day after the day of your deposit and those funds may not be available until the ninth business day after the day of your deposit.
